Link Worker

ABOUT THE ROLE

Locations: Village Commons, 610 8 Ave SE

Full Time Regular: 37.5 hours per week

Salary: $52,500

In collaboration with the In Place Outreach Team, the Link Worker will support participants in living independently within the community and improving their social determinants of health. Under the direction of the Supervisor, the Link Worker will use best practices in social prescribing to connect participants with social, community, and partner supports, enhancing their health and well-being and assisting them in safely aging in place.

WHO YOU ARE

- You are compassionate and patient, genuinely caring about others' growth and well-being while guiding them toward independence.
- You are collaborative and trustworthy, building strong relationships with participants and community partners alike.
- You are organized and proactive, balancing attention to detail with a commitment to making a meaningful impact every day.

WHAT YOU WILL DO

Supporting Participants

- Work collaboratively with In Place Outreach Workers and participants to develop and implement case plans, access community supports, and achieve short and long-term goals.
- Utilize social prescribing best practices to empower participants to connect with community resources.
- Attend appointments, social engagements, and prescribed referrals with participants throughout Calgary and their local communities.
- Conduct in-home and community visits to support participants in stabilizing needs, building resilience, and enhancing independence.

Collaborate and Build Community Connections

- Partner with professionals across health, justice, and community services to enhance participants' wellness, recovery, and social outcomes.
- Represent Carya as an ambassador when engaging with stakeholders, participants, and the public.
- Participate in team meetings, communities of practice, and other agency events to strengthen collaboration and knowledge sharing.

Stay Organized and Make an Impact

- Maintain accurate and timely participant records and complete evaluation activities according to agency guidelines.
- Ensure compliance with policies and procedures related to health and safety, working alone, customer service, data protection, and confidentiality.
- Engage in mandatory training and professional development to continually improve skills and effectiveness.
